

1. Why did people from early civilizations study/learn geometry? Give at least two specific examples.
2. How did the Greeks' approach to Geometry differ from those other early civilizations?
3. Explain in your own words the meanings of the words, postulate and axiom.
4. A famous Greek was mentioned in the reading as having written an important manuscript.
 - a. What was his name?
 - b. What was the name of the document he wrote?
 - c. How many postulates did it contain?
5. What is the difference in meaning between the words, postulate and theorem?