

Jane Austen

—

Emma Dove

Sense and Sensibility

Originally known as “Elinor and Marianne”

John Willoughby hits on Marianne Dashwood who sprains her ankle in the rain, and she later marries Colonel Brandon.

Pride and Prejudice

"It is a truth universally acknowledged, that a single man in possession of a good fortune must be in want of a wife"

"Absurd" clergyman William Collins marries Charlotte Lucas, and Georgiana helps her brother Fitzwilliam Darcy end up with Elizabeth Bennet.

Lydia marries George Wickham

Mr. Darcy's house is Pemberley Estate and the book is set in Meryton

Lady Catherine de Bourgh objects to Mr. Darcy and Elizabeth's marriage

Emma

Emma Woodhouse

Emma tries to set up Philip Elton with her friend Harriet Smith, chasing off Harriet's more appropriate suitor Robert Martin in the process.

She loves matchmaking; ultimately marrying George Knightley, and gives up matchmaking after a few bad attempts

Northanger Abbey (Catherine)

Thomas Bertram's estate and Bath, England

Catherine Morland thinks life is a Gothic novel and wishes she could say the same of her life

Henry Tilney is her love, although they are not “on the same mental state”

John Thorpe tries to keep Henry Tilney from marrying Catherine Morland

Henry (?) enjoys cricket, riding on horseback, and baseball and is friends with Isabella Thorpe

Persuasion

Louisa marries a man she met while recovering from a fall off a staircase in Lyme Regis, leaving Anne Elliot to marry Captain Wentworth (after she is told by her family not to marry him, Lady Russell later convinces her to)

Anne Elliot spends much of her time looking after her sister, Mary Musgrove

Other Works

Mansfield Park

Lesley Castle

Sanditon completely by “Another Lady” (Mr. Parker)

Love and Friendship

The Watsons (Lord Osborne and Tom Musgrove)

Lady Susan

Sir Charles Grandison

She used the word “baseball” in print before any other author!

Jane Austen is featured the 10-pound note released new Governor of the Bank of England, Mark Carney.